SUNDAY – DAY 2 After breakfast we leave the hotel and travel through France by passing Orleans, Chateauroux and Limoges to Le-Bugue and the Royal Vezere Hotel for a stay of five nights.

MONDAY – DAY 3 Today we first of all drive to Perigueux which is the capital of the region. This beautiful town offers superb architecture, pavement Cafes and restaurants. A gastronomic centre which has a total of 39 historic monuments. We include an introductory walking guided tour which lasts about 1 hour, then in the afternoon we drive to the Roque St Christophe, an amazing place of beauty and history of pre historic life many thousands of years ago. We include entrance to this, then afterwards return to our Hotel for dinner.

TUESDAY – DAY 4 Today there is normally a morning market in Le-Bugue, so a free morning to relax and do as you please. Explore the narrow winding streets and the beautiful traditional houses before a short leisurely drive to either Beynac-et-Cazenac or Roque-Gageac for an included boat sail on the Dordogne River.

WEDNESDAY – DAY 5 A full tour today which starts with a visit to Sarlat-La-Caneda a beautifully preserved historic town, one of the most famous for medieval art and history in France. It claims to have the highest number of listed buildings per square metre in Europe. We then continue to Rocamadour a setting rich in tradition where pilgrims have been visiting this medieval city for centuries. Defying gravity, Rocamadour is built into a cliff side whose rocks protect the sacred shrines and monastery.

THURSDAY – DAY 6 No holiday would be complete in this region without viewing its vineyards, so today we travel west along the Dordogne Valley to Bergerac where the old town slopes down to the river. Here we can see the covered market, Notre Dame Church, the Statue of Cyrano-De-Bergerac and the old bridges and quays. We also include a prestige guided tour of Chateau De Monbazillac learning of the local history during a tour of the Chateau, we then include a wine tasting normally of 3 selected wines before returning to our hotel.

FRIDAY – DAY 7 Sadly after breakfast at our Hotel we have to leave the Dordogne and drive North through France to our Hotel on the outskirts of Paris.
